

Folsom 2012 Long Term Course Application

Application due November 7, 2011

1. List in the following order:
  - Name, home address, home phone number, cell phone number and email address.
  - Your current work address and work phone number.
  - Your supervisor's name and phone number.
2. List in the following order:
  - Formal education and degrees earned, beginning with high school. List in chronological order with dates. Please include name and location of schools.
  - Post graduation courses: List in chronological order with dates, length of courses and names of principal instructors.
  - Your physical therapy license number and the date you received your physical therapy license.
  - Work history: List in chronological order, with dates and length of employment, each physical therapy job you have had and immediate supervisor.
3. A brief list of past related activities within or outside the profession that may strengthen your candidacy.
4. Trace your development in the field of physical therapy and define your perception of "manual therapy".
5. Provide three professional references that we can contact. Give their work addresses, and work and home phone numbers as they may be need to be contacted after business hours.
6. Description of your titles and duties:
  - Average number of patients you see per day.
  - Number of work hours per day.
  - Number of days worked per week.
  - Average number of new patients per week.
  - List the top five diagnoses/conditions you see at work. Rank them in order of frequency and indicate percentages of each.
7. Copy of your physical therapy license.

Pages 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 should be on separate sheets of paper and stapled together in the order listed above. All submitted material should be typed. Sign and date the bottom of each page.

Please mail application to:

Folsom Physical Therapy

115 Natoma St.

Folsom CA 95630

916-985-3115

You must sign and date the bottom of each page.
All applicants must be registered physical therapists.

The instructors value full attendance and energetic participation at each session.
Scheduling vacations to allow your full commitment to the schedule is strongly encouraged.